

SHIELDING THE FUTURE

Appollo Ispat Complex Limited is situated at Shimrail, Siddhirganj, Narayanganj only 14 Km away from Dhaka. The project area is of 20 acres of land and has the direct access from the main road. The entire production facility is highly sophisticated, well operated by a group of skilled technicians and managed by a resourceful management team. With the best precession Japanese technology sincere and skilled human resources, the company is proudly producing the best quality CI sheets for the country. The reputed trading base and quality products helps the company to achieve a large marketing network around the country. Today the largest marketing management system has enhanced the marketing strength of the company.

The corporate Head Office at 407 Tejgaon Industrial Area Dhaka operates the central management. The company directors are eminent in the business domain of Bangladesh. Every director is reputed by their own business and social activities. The prudent foresightedness of the board of directors is considered as the land mark in the industrial growth of the company. Besides steel manufacturing, the directors of Appollo are engaged in a number of business and industry ranging from Banking, Insurance, Finance & Leasing, Spinning, Real Estate etc. The company is active to build a wealthy human resource. The in-house training via local and foreign technician, conferences, group discussions and overseas attendance are the regular practice of the company.

Appollo is also broadening its business horizon outside of Bangladesh through export and at present high emphasize is being given to export, for widening it to other countries.